

Fundraising for Non Profit

Master class for grant makers

Every organization wants to grow its donor base, but how realistic is it for a national organization to make their brand a “household name” that they can really leverage to raise money? In this session we will share how nonprofits should explore various ways of fundraising, How to use latest tools and techniques , and how to turn that data into actionable insights for attracting donations.

Even those NGO’s which are currently funded through government or international grants need to focus on fundraising in preparation for the rapidly changing funding environment. Sustained funding and revenue is needed to deliver the critical services to fulfil the mission. Hence the urgent need for non-profits to diversify their fundraising sources and methods and build a strong community of supporters.

Our training spans a comprehensive range of fundraising topics geared towards different levels of fundraising experience and training needs. From Government aids and grants to crowd funding, this training will help broaden your horizon on current fund raising trends and techniques.

NCD Training will help you deliver excellent fundraising results based on proven and profitable fundraising programs. We will talk about broad sets of fundraising techniques to establish a strong strategy, develop clear implementation plans, and evaluate activities. We will help you adapt fundraising methods that are suitable to your organization ,we will teach you various technique’s so that you can help your organization raise resources effectively by giving you the strategic tools to create positive fundraising impact.
